

Timmerman School Supplemental Summer Camps 2026

| Date           | Camp                                                    | Age                                                | Price | Time | Synopsis                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| June 22-25     | Rising 4th grade Reading and math camp with Ms. Clark          | Rising 4th grade (or anyone on a 4th grade reading level) | $150        | 9:30-12:30  | We will read Holes and review math skills.                                                                                                                            |
| June 22-25     | 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens with Mrs. Sutherland | Rising 5th grade and up                                   | $100        | 9-12        | An interactive program that teaches essential life skills, including goal-setting, improved communication , peer pressure resistance, and self confidence building workshops |
| June 22-25     | Applied Math and Science camp with Mr. Havird                  | Rising 5th and up                                         | $100        | 12:30-2:30  | This is a hands on camp that bridges applied sciences, computing, and technology. Students love the experiments at this event!                                               |
| June 29-July 2 | Basketball Camp with Coaches Chris and Nick Taylor             | Rising 2nd grade and up                                   | $70         | 9-12        | Come condition and practice basketball skills!                                                                                                                               |
| July 6-9       | Rising 3rd grade and up Art Camp with Ms. Clark                | Rising 3rd grade and up                                   | $125        | 9-12        | We'll work with clay, paint, fabrics, and more!                                                                                                                              |
| July 13-16     | Rising 5th grade and up reading and math camp with Ms. Clark   | Rising 5th grade (or anyone on a 5th grade reading level) | $150        | 9-1         | We'll read Bridge to Terabithia and review math skills                                                                                                                |
| July 13-16     | Cheer Camp with Coach Ryleigh Grace                            | Rising 1st grade and up                                   | $70         | 1-4         | Come practice cheers and have fun with friends!                                                                                                                              |

Timmerman School Supplemental Summer Camps 2026

|                   |                                                                                                         |                                   |       |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| July 20-23 | STEM CAMPwith Ms. Clark                                                                             | Rising k5 andup (split times) | $125 | -Rising k5-rising 2ndgrade 9-11-Rising 3rdgrade and up12:30-2:30 | We will solveproblems withscience,technology,engineering,and math!Come for asample of ourSTEAMAccreditedProgram. We'lleven play withthe new 3Dprinters.    |
| July 20-23 | The Lord of theRings: TheFellowship ofthe Rings Book1 with Mrs.Sutherland | Rising 6th andup              | $100 | 9-12                                                                                 | An immersive,team buildingcamp focusingon teamwork,encouragingcooperationskills, andcharacterbuilding in athemedenvironment.                                           |
| July 20-23 | Middle SchoolAlgebra Campwith Ms.Burnett                                                    | Rising 6th andup              | $100 | 12:30-2:30                                                                           | Increase yourmath prowessand master keyconcepts.Bring graphpaper andscientificcalculator. Allmiddle schoolagesencouraged toattend.                                 |
| July 27-30 | Princess andSuperheroCamp                                                                       | Rising k5 andup               | $125 | 9-11                                                                                 | DuringPrincess andSuperheroCamp we willtrain to beprincesses,princes, andsuperheroes!We'll createprops, havethemedsnacks, and dosuper specialactivities. |

Timmerman School Supplemental Summer Camps 2026

|                   |                                                                                       |                   |       |            |                                                                                                                                                        |
|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|-------|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| July 27-30 | The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Rings book 2 with Mrs. Sutherland | Rising 6th and up | $100 | 9-12       | Join us as we continue through the Biblical allusions set forth in part one in Middle Earth.                                                           |
| July 27-30 | Middle School Geometry Camp with Ms. Burnett                                          | Rising 6th and up | $100 | 12:30-2:30 | Intensive, hands-on experience to build foundational skills. Bring graph paper and scientific calculator. All middle school ages encouraged to attend. |
| August 3-6 | Under the Sea and Space Camp with Ms. Clark                                           | Rising k5 and up  | $125 | 9-11       | During Under the Sea and Space Camp, we will learn about different sea animals, planets, constellations, and more!                                     |

Timmerman School Supplemental Summer Camps 2026

|                   |                                               |                   |       |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------|-------|------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| August 3-6 | PSAT Reading and Writing with Mrs. Sutherland | Rising 6th and up | $100 | 9-12       | A targeted test-prep program designed to help students master the English sections on testing. This camps focus on building essential literacy and grammatical skills, improving reading speed, and teaching test-taking strategies to boost overall scores.            |
| August 3-6 | PSAT Math with Ms. Burnett                    | Rising 6th and up | $100 | 12:30-2:30 | An intensive prep program to boost scores in standardized testing. Learn strategies for improved test proficiencies. This camp is designed for any age middle school student. Bring graph paper and scientific calculator. All middle school ages encouraged to attend. |

Timmerman School Supplemental Summer Camps 2026

|                     |                                              |                   |       |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------|----------------------------------------------|-------------------|-------|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| August 10-13 | Student Activities Camp with Mrs. Sutherland | Rising 5th and up | $100 | 9-12 | This camp focuses on developing communication , project planning, team-building, and conflict resolution skills through workshops. It prepares students to create a positive impact on their schools and communities. Rising 5th and up is invited to attend this camp. |
|---------------------|----------------------------------------------|-------------------|-------|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|